Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions, which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-3 and 7, drawn to a method of diagnosing a patient as having a neoplasia comprising detecting an endocan nucleic acid molecule. Claims 1-3 and 7 will be examined with this Group to the extent a nucleic acid is detected.

Group II, claim(s) 1-7, drawn to a method of diagnosing a patient as having a neoplasia comprising detecting an endocan polypeptide molecule. Claims 1-3 and 7 will be examined with this Group to the extent a polypeptide is detected.

Group III, claim(s) 8-23, drawn to a method of assessing the responsiveness of a neoplasm to a treatment regimen comprising determining the level of an endocan nucleic acid, wherein an alteration indicates responsiveness. Claims 8-23 will be examined with this Group to the extent a nucleic acid is detected.

Group IV, claim(s) 8-23, drawn to a method of assessing the responsiveness of a neoplasm to a treatment regimen comprising determining the level of an endocan polypeptide, wherein an alteration indicates responsiveness. Claims 1-3 and 7 will be examined to the extent a polypeptide is detected.

Group V, claim(s) 24, drawn to a diagnostic kit for the detection of a neoplasm comprising an endocan nucleic acid. Claim 24 will be examined with this Group to the extent a nucleic acid is within said kit.

Group VI, claim(s) 24 and 25, drawn to a diagnostic kit for the detection of a neoplasm comprising an endocan amino acid sequence, such as an anti-endocan antibody. Claim 24 will be examined with this Group to the extent an antibody is within said kit.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-VI do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The special technical feature recited in claim 1 is a method of diagnosing a patient as having a neoplasia comprising detecting an endocan nucleic acid molecule. U.S. Patent Application Publication 2006/0167067 A1 (effective filing date July 1, 2002) teaches methods of diagnosing cancer by detecting a nucleic acid encoding an ESM-1 (endothelial cell specific molecule) also known as endocan within a biological sample from a subject, see page 30, sections 0305-0309. Moreover, Aitkenhead et al. (Microvascular Research 63(2): 159-171, March 2002) teaches ESM-1 is upregulated in several renal cell carcinomas, as well as in many tumors, see abstract; page 165, bridging paragraph; and bridging paragraph of pages 165 and 166. Therefore, the technical feature recited in claim 1 is not special. Accordingly, the groups are not so linked as to form a single general concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
